How I found this on the internet:

Go to rootsweb.com

Enter query: "Charles Hanson"

Approximately 600 Charles Hansons will come up.

Narrow them down this way:

Double click "World Connect"

Scroll to the bottom of the page and type in Charles's exact birth year 1864.

Then, click Search.

Matilda Pipkins's family page will come up.

You can click "Pedigree" or "Ahnentafel."

The attached is the "Ahnentafel."

NOTE: Also on Matilda's page you can go to the "Pipkin Family Ancestry Web Site."
(The link is at the top of the page.) It has a lot of historical info on the Pipkins family, including photos, land records, family crest, descendant charts, wills, etc.)

I created this on 2/19/03 based on Matilda Pipkins's family ancestral

Mrs Patricia N. Edwards
26 Robinwood Place
Purvis, MS 39475

Dear Mrs Edwards,

Mrs Joseph R. Gray sent your Greene County MS Pipkin data on to me, the editor of the Pipkin Family Association Newsletter. I greatly appreciate your kindness in sharing this data with us. I organized the Pipkin Family Association in November 1963, and except for 3 years in Germany and 2 years in Korea, I have been the editor of the Newsletter. The Newsletter is essentially biographical sketches of Pipkin families.

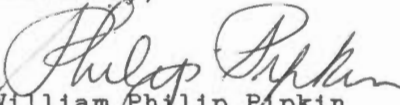

I attach two pages which have all the information that I have in my files on what I believe to be the family of Moses Pipkin. About 15 years ago when my daughter was stationed at Fort McClelland I spent a day in the Birmingham Public Library. I found the obituary of Sarden C. Pipkin at that time as well as other data.

The other Pipkin families of Lewis, William and Richard are a puzzle. I have read the 1850-60-70 and soundex version of 1880 census of Greene County. The 1860 census says Lewis was born 1832 in GA, the 1870 census says born 1834 in AL and 1880 census says born 1821 in NC. As William has Catherine who is apparently his Mother with him in 1860 and Lewis named his eldest daughter Catherine, I assumed they were brothers. The logical movement west was from SC to GA to AL then to MS. A large group of Pipkin families moved from SC (mainly Darlington and Sumter District) in the early 1810's to Pulaski County GA; then prior to 1820's to Conecuh County AL. BUT I cannot place Lewis, William or Mother Catherine with any of these families.

Richard Pipkin born 1821 in MS (1860 census) is also a mystery. I have the names of the Pipkin families in MS for 1840 and he does not fit into any of them. Stephen Pipkin born 1759 NC; then to Darlington District SC 1804; about 1811 to Pulaski Co GA; 1818 to Conecuh Co AL had a son Richard who was a Methodist Circuit Rider. Family legend says he died in Wilcox Co AL in 1834 unmarried. This is the only Richard I have information on in this area.

I have "Wayne County NC Minutes County Court Pleas and Quarter Session 1787-1794". There are entries for Blake, David Solomon and Solomon BAREFIELD. Mostly being appointed overseers of road work and to juries. If this is your BAREFIELD family, I will be glad to copy what little this book has.

Sincerely,

William Philip Pipkin

Greene Co MS

MOSES PIPKIN 1775/84 - prior 1840

Moses Pipkin of unknown parentage and place of birth was born prior 1789 according to the 1810 census of Franklin County, Natchez District MS. He and his wife were listed as over 21 and had 3 females under 21 years of age. Using the rule of thumb that a male was 25 when first child born. Moses would have been born c1780.

Moses Pipkin is listed in the 1816 tax list of Wayne Co MS. He is in the 1820 census of Greene Co MS as age 26/45 and has 3 females 10/16, 2 females under 10 and one male under 10. His wife had probably died. He may be the Moses Pipkin who married Nancy Holbard in 1825 (Mob Cath Rec) they had dau Dursilla born 1826

The PFA has not had a member from this family. The information below is based on Confederate and Census records and records of Mrs Patricia N. Edwards, 26 Robinwood Pl, Purvis, MS 39475. Thanks to member Mrs Joseph R. Gray for sharing Mrs Edwards records

MOSES PIPKIN POSSIBLE FAMILY LINE.

Willis Pipkin born c1747 the son of Joseph and Susannah (Yeates) Pipkin had 5 sons all born Wayne Co NC: (1) Mills born c1774/84 who lived and died in Wayne Co NC; (2) Lovett Pipkin born c1774/80 moved to St Clair Co AL in 1820 and died 1839; (3) Moses Pipkin born c1774/84 left Wayne Co prior to 1810, altho he drew slaves as part of his inheritance in 1818; (4) William Pipkin born c1787 moved to DeKalb Co TN in 1841 and then to Missouri; (5) Stewart Pipkin born c1789 moved to Tipton Co TN in 1830 and Panola Co MS in 1850.

Willis Pipkin deeded land to all his children except Moses during 1812-17. It is proposed he had already given Moses a part of his inheritance prior to his leaving Wayne County.

For whom was Moses' son Martin named? Stephen and Amelia (Thompson) Pipkin, had a son Martin born in Wayne Co in 1794. Stephen's mother is unknown but a possibility is Mary Martin the daughter of Richard who mentioned the "Heirs of my daughter Mary Pipkin" in his will of 1786? Was Moses unknown wife a Martin?

Thanks to Mrs Edwards for sharing this. She is not a Pipkin but keeps records of Greene County MS. She is researching the families of Nicholson (Sct-MS), Barfield (Dobbs-NC), Brown (Jones- MS), Davis (Orange-NC), Jones (Moore-NC), Boutwell (SC), Hartsfield (SC), Ivey (Orange-NC), Manning (NG-GA), Laird (SC), Skinner (SG-MS), Holley (GA-AL). Many thanks to member Mrs Joseph R. Gray who consistently sends the editor information she has found in her searching. The PFA Newsletter is better because do her.

PHS graduate overcomes adversities

■ To be awarded a full tuition-paid scholarship to Ole Miss

By DEBBIE ANGLIN
Mississippi Press Staff

PASCAGOULA — Pascagoula High School graduate Kevin Klasky is a survivor. Even though he has lost four members of his immediate family in the last 14 years, Kevin is looking forward to the future as he heads to the University of Mississippi on a $24,000 Lucky Day scholarship that is awarded to students based on need.

"Without the scholarship, I probably wouldn't be going to college," Kevin said.

In the face of a life filled with adversity, Kevin said he has found strength and comfort from his friends and their families whom he has known since he was a young child.

"I have two really great cousins and I have the greatest friends," Kevin said. "I love all my friends and they have helped me through a lot."

Kevin was only 5 when his mother, Adrienne Klasky, was killed by her ex-husband, Michael Graham, on April 7, 1989, at the intersection of Pascagoula Street and Jackson Avenue.

Her death stunned the community. She left behind two young sons. Graham was convicted of murder and is serving a life sentence.

"I don't really remember much about that day," Kevin said. "I was at Bethel Christian Academy in the gym when they came to get me. I don't even remember who it was."

See KLASKY, Page 2-A

2-A

Klasky

From Page 1-A

The young boy was taken to his "Nannie's" home where he went everyday after school. There, he was told his mother had died.

"I didn't really understand it all at the time because I was so young," Klasky said.

He and his older brother, Michael, went to live with their maternal grandparents, Lyle and Barbara Klasky. Lyle Klasky was a well-known businessman in the city and former owner of Brumfield's.

"Then, my grandmother died when I was about 8 or 9 and soon after that my aunt, Sydney Klasky, came to live with us and help my grandpa with us," Kevin said.

Kevin grew up attending Pascagoula schools, first at Beach Elementary and then at Trent Lott Middle before going to Pascagoula High School.

But during his freshman year, tragedy struck again. Within months of being diagnosed with cancer, Lyle Klasky succumbed to the disease, leaving his daughter Sydney Klasky to take care of the two teens. But her health was not the best as she battled lupus and fibrosis in her lungs.

About two years ago, older brother Michael joined the U.S. Army and is stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C.

"After Michael left, it was just the two of us," Kevin said.

As Sydney Klasky's health began to deteriorate, Kevin juggled school work and hospital visits that increased intensely during the past four months.

"It's been a crazy year," Kevin said. "I've have had a lot going on with all this college stuff and trying to get everything ready and going back and forth to the hospital."

Sydney Klasky wanted to attend her nephew's graduation Thursday night at War Memorial Stadium. But hours before he was to walk with his class, she died at Singing River Hospital.

"I know Kevin realizes that Sydney is with him in a much bigger way now, and that she did see him graduate," said Renee Hague, whose daughter, Laura, is Kevin's girlfriend.

"We just love Kevin," Hague said. "He is such a spiritual person. He is courageous and compassionate and the first to help anyone who needs help. He just wants to make good out of everything that has happened to him."

Amazingly, after everything that has occurred in Kevin's life, he is not bitter.

"Yes, I have grieved for those I have lost, but I have mourned and then I have put it away," Kevin said.

"I have come to realize that there's not much you can do about these kinds of things because what is going to happen is going to happen."

But Kevin has not been alone to face each tragedy. Not only have Kevin's friends provided him with support, but many of their parents have become surrogate parents to him.

"Kevin has had more traumas, more to cope with than any other student I have ever worked with," said Deb Banahan, a PHS counselor. Her son, Johnny Banahan is one of Kevin's friends.

"A lot of people would have given up and felt sorry for themselves, but not Kevin. He has never felt sorry for himself; he just keeps going. He cares a lot about his education and how others perceive him.

NEXT STEP — After graduating from Pascagoula High School Thursday, Kevin Klasky is looking forward to his next step in life.

He's just a great guy."

Kevin describes himself as a strong person.

"No matter what had happened in my life I think I would have turned out the same," he said. "I've always tried to do my best and by what I have accomplished, I know my family would have been proud of me."
